SECTION 1	BOARD CHARTER	2
SECTION 2	AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER	9
SECTION 3	RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER	11
SECTION 4	REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER	13
SECTION 5	NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER	16

SECTION 1 BOARD CHARTER

1. INTRODUCTION

In carrying out the responsibilities and powers set out in this Charter, the Board:

- (a) recognises its overriding responsibility to act honestly, fairly, diligently and in accordance with the law in serving the interests of the Company and its shareholders; and
- (b) recognises its duties and responsibilities to its employees, customers, creditors and the community.

2. SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

In addition to matters the Board is expressly required by law to approve, the Board has the following reserved functions and responsibilities:

- (a) overseeing the business and affairs of the Company, including its control and accountability systems;
- (b) appointing the Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer (Managing Director) and the Executive Director – Operations and Development (ED Operations) (the Managing Director and the ED Operations together form EXCO) and the determination of their terms and conditions including remuneration and termination;
- (c) driving the strategic direction of the Company, ensuring appropriate resources are available to meet objectives and monitoring EXCO's performance;
- (d) reviewing and ratifying systems of risk management and internal compliance and control, codes of conduct and legal compliance;
- (e) ensuring the health, safety and well-being of employees, in conjunction with the senior management team, developing, overseeing and reviewing the effectiveness of the Company's occupational health and safety systems to ensure the well-being of all employees;
- (f) approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management and significant acquisitions and divestitures;
- (g) approving and monitoring the budget and the adequacy and integrity of financial and other reporting;
- (h) subject to receiving the appropriate declaration from the Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer, approving the annual, half yearly and quarterly accounts;
- (i) approving significant changes to the Company's organisational structure;
- (j) approving the issue of any shares, options, equity instruments or other securities in the Company;
- (k) ensuring a high standard of corporate governance practice and regulatory compliance and promoting ethical and responsible decision-making;
- (l) recommending to shareholders the appointment of the external auditor as and when their appointment or re-appointment is required to be approved by them;
- (m) appointing the external auditor, subject to confirmation by the shareholders at the Company's annual general meeting; and

- (n) meeting with the external auditor without management being present.

3. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

- (a) The composition of the Board is to be reviewed annually to ensure the appropriate mix of skills, qualifications, experience, expertise and diversity is present to facilitate successful strategic direction as well as assisting the Company in achieving growth and delivering value to shareholders. Directors should clearly understand the corporate expectations of them.
- (b) In appointing new members to the Board, consideration is to be given to the ability of the appointee to contribute to the ongoing effectiveness of the Board, to exercise sound business judgement, to commit the necessary time to fulfil the requirements of the role effectively and to contribute to the development of the strategic direction of the Company.
- (c) The majority of the Board should be comprised of non-executive Directors. Where practical, a majority of the Board will be independent. An independent Director is one who is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship, which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with, the exercise of independent judgement. Independent Directors should meet the definition of what constitutes independence as set out in the Definition of Independence in paragraph 11.
- (d) All Directors – whether independent or not – are expected to bring their independent views and judgement to the Board and must declare immediately to the Board any potential or active conflicts of interest. To facilitate this, the Board shall provide a procedure for Directors to have access in appropriate circumstances to independent professional advice at the Company's expense.
- (e) Directors must declare immediately to the Board any loss of independence.
- (f) Prior to the Board proposing re-election of Directors, their performance will be evaluated by the Nomination Committee to ensure that they continue to contribute effectively to the Board.

4. ROLE OF THE CHAIRMAN

- (a) The roles of Chairman and Managing Director must not be exercised by the same individual.
- (b) The Chairman should be an independent Director. If a Chairman ceases to be an independent Director then the Board will appoint another Director who is independent either as Chairman or as a lead independent Director.
- (c) There is a clear division of responsibility at the head of the Company. The division of responsibilities between the Chairman and EXCO should be agreed by the Board.
- (d) The Chairman must be able to commit the time to discharge the role effectively.
- (e) The Chairman is responsible for the leadership of the Board, ensuring it is effective, setting the agenda of the Board, conducting the Board meetings and conducting shareholder meetings.
- (f) The Chairman should facilitate the effective contribution of all Directors and promote constructive and respectful relations between Board members and management.
- (g) In the event that the Chairman is absent from a meeting of the Board then the Board shall appoint a Chairman for that meeting.

5. BOARD COMMITTEES

- (a) To assist the Board in fulfilling its duties, the Board has established, or proposes to establish, the following committees, each with written terms of reference (collectively referred to as the Board Committees):
- (i) Audit Committee;
 - (ii) Risk Committee;
 - (iii) Remuneration Committee; and
 - (iv) Nomination Committee.

The Remuneration Committee and the Nomination Committee are currently established as a combined single Board Committee operating pursuant to the charters for each committee.

- (b) In addition to the Board Committees listed in paragraph (a) above, the Board may establish other Board Committees with such delegated authority as provided in written terms of reference.
- (c) The charters of the Board Committees are approved by the Board and are to be reviewed annually and following any applicable regulatory changes.
- (d) The Board will ensure that the Board Committees are sufficiently funded to enable them to fulfil their roles and discharge their responsibilities.
- (e) Members of Board Committees are appointed by the Board. The Board may appoint additional Directors to Board Committees or remove and replace members of the Board Committees by resolution.
- (f) The minutes of each Board Committee meeting shall be provided to the Board at the next occasion the Board meets following approval of the minutes of such Board Committee meeting.

6. COMPANY SECRETARY

- (a) When requested by the Board, the Company Secretary will facilitate the flow of information of the Board, between the Board and the Board Committees and between senior executives and non-executive Directors.
- (b) The Company Secretary is to support the effectiveness of the Board by monitoring that Board policy and procedures are followed, and coordinating the timely completion and despatch of Board agenda and briefing material.
- (c) The Company Secretary is to facilitate the induction of new Directors.
- (d) The Company Secretary is to facilitate the implementation of Board policies and procedures.
- (e) The Company Secretary is to provide advice to the Board on corporate governance matters.
- (f) The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.
- (g) All Directors have access to the advice and services provided by the Company Secretary.

- (h) The Board has the responsibility for the appointment and removal of the Company Secretary.

7. ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND ADVICE

- (a) All Directors have unrestricted access to company records and information in order to discharge their responsibilities effectively, except where the Board determines that such access would be adverse to the Company's interests.
- (b) All Directors may consult management and employees as reasonably required with, as a matter of courtesy, prior notification to the Managing Director, to enable them to discharge their duties as Directors.
- (c) Senior executives supply the Board with information in a form and timeframe, and of a quality that enables the Board to discharge its duties effectively. Directors are entitled to request additional information where they consider such information necessary to make informed decisions.
- (d) The Board, Board Committees or individual Directors may seek independent external professional advice as considered reasonably necessary at the expense of the Company, subject to prior consultation with the Chairman. A copy of any such advice received will be made available to all members of the Board.

8. BOARD'S RELATIONSHIP WITH MANAGEMENT

- (a) The Board delegates responsibility for the day-to-day operations, management and administration of the Company to EXCO in accordance with the strategy approved by the Board.
- (b) EXCO's joint responsibilities include:
 - (i) effective leadership of the Company;
 - (ii) preparation, and implementation of, development and operational plans, policies and procedures to achieve the strategic, operational and financial objectives of the Company as determined by the Board;
 - (iii) management of the day to day affairs of the Company including its people, processes, policies and systems;
 - (iv) identifying and managing business risks and, where those risks could have a material impact on the Company's business, formulating strategies for managing those risks for consideration by the Board. These risks include both financing and non-financial risks;
 - (v) conduct of commercial negotiations with other entities;
 - (vi) managing the Company's financial and other reporting mechanisms as well as its internal control and monitoring systems to ensure that these mechanisms and systems capture all relevant material information on a timely basis and are functioning effectively;
 - (vii) development and maintenance of effective relationships with the Company's employees, shareholders, joint venture partners, governments at all levels and government agencies, suppliers and customers, and local landowners;
 - (viii) ensuring that the Company complies with all applicable laws and regulations, including applicable listing rule disclosure requirements;

- (ix) reporting to the Board, or as directed by the Board, and providing prompt and full information regarding the conduct and performance of the business of the Company and its financial performance, financial condition, operating results and prospects;
 - (x) ensuring all material matters that affect the Company are brought to the Board's attention; and
 - (xi) ensuring that senior executives, including EXCO members, have a formal job description and employment contracts or letters of appointment describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination.
- (c) EXCO may, in turn, delegate authorities to other employees and consultants of the Company to transact on behalf of the Company. The cascading delegated authority limits for EXCO and other employees and consultants of the Company and its subsidiaries are set out in the Delegation of Authority Standard.
- (d) In addition to formal reporting structures, members of the Board are encouraged to have direct communications with management and other employees within the group to facilitate the carrying out of their duties as Directors.

9. PERFORMANCE REVIEW

9.1 Overview

Once a year, the Board shall hold a meeting to review critically and discuss the performance of:

- (a) the Board as a whole;
- (b) its Board Committees; and
- (c) individual Directors.

If it is apparent that there are problems which cannot be satisfactorily considered by the Board itself, the Board may decide to engage an independent adviser to undertake this review.

9.2 Board

A process shall be established to review and evaluate the Board. The annual review includes, but is not limited to, consideration of the following:

- (a) comparison of the performance of the Board against the Board Charter;
- (b) assessment of the performance of the Board over the previous twelve months having regard to the corporate strategies, operating plans and the annual budget;
- (c) review of the Board's interaction with management;
- (d) identification of any particular goals and objectives of the Board for the next year;
- (e) review of the type and timing of information provided to the Directors; and
- (f) identification of any necessary or desirable improvements to Board or Board Committee Charters.

The method and scope of the performance evaluation will be set by the Board and may include a Board self-assessment checklist to be completed by each Director.

9.3 Board Committees

Each Board Committee will be subject to an annual review and evaluation. The annual review will include considerations similar to those applied to the review of the Board and will include an assessment of the performance of each Board Committee against each Board Committee Charter in order to identify areas where improvements can be made.

9.4 Non-executive Directors

The Chairman will have primary responsibility for conducting performance appraisals of non-executive Directors, having particular regard to:

- (a) contribution to Board discussion and function;
- (b) degree of independence including relevance of any conflicts of interest;
- (c) availability for and attendance at Board meetings and other relevant events;
- (d) contribution to Company strategy;
- (e) membership of and contribution to any Board Committees; and
- (f) suitability to Board structure and composition.

Where the Chairman, following a performance appraisal, considers that action must be taken in relation to a Director's performance, the Chairman must consult with the remainder of the Board regarding whether a Director should be counselled to resign, not seek re-election, or in exceptional circumstances, whether a resolution for the removal of a Director be put to shareholders.

9.5 EXCO

The Board will annually review the performance of the each EXCO member. At the commencement of each financial year, the Board and each EXCO member will agree a set of generally Company specific performance measures to be used in the review of the forthcoming year. These will include, but not be limited to:

- (a) financial measures of the Company's performance;
- (b) the extent to which key operational goals and strategic objectives are achieved;
- (c) development of management and staff;
- (d) compliance with legal and Company policy requirements; and
- (e) achievement of key performance indicators.

The review process above may be delegated by the Board to the Remuneration Committee.

10. INDUCTION

The Company Secretary in conjunction with the Nomination Committee will put in place induction procedures to allow new Directors to participate fully and actively in Board decision-making at the earliest opportunity. The induction program will be available to enable new Directors to gain an understanding of:

- (a) the Company's financial, strategic, operational and risk management position;
- (b) the culture and values of the Company;
- (c) the rights, duties and responsibilities of the Directors;

- (d) the roles and responsibilities of senior executives;
- (e) the role and procedures of the Board and its Board Committees;
- (f) meeting arrangements; and
- (g) Director interaction with each other, senior management and other stakeholders.

Directors will be given access to continuing education to update and enhance their skills and knowledge.

11. DEFINITION OF INDEPENDENCE

An independent Director is a non-executive Director (i.e. is not a member of management) and:

- (a) holds less than 5% of the voting shares of the Company and is not an officer of a shareholder that holds more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company;
- (b) within the last three years has not been employed in an executive capacity by the Company or another group member, or been a Director after ceasing to hold any such employment;
- (c) within the last three years has not been a principal of a material consultant to the Company or another group member or an employee materially associated with the service provided;
- (d) is not a material supplier or customer of the Company or other group member, or an officer of or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a material supplier or customer;
- (e) has no material contractual relationship with the Company or another group member other than as a Director of the Company;
- (f) has not served on the Board of Directors of the Company for a period which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the Director's ability to act in the best interests of the Company; and
- (g) is free from any interest and any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the Director's ability to act in the best interests of the Company.

The materiality thresholds are assessed on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the relevant Director's specific circumstances, rather than referring to a general materiality threshold.

SECTION 2 AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. COMPOSITION

- (a) The Audit Committee must comprise at least three members.
- (b) All members of the Audit Committee must be non-executive Directors.
- (c) A majority of the members of the Committee must be independent non-executive Directors in accordance with the criteria set out in the Definition of Independence in paragraph 11 of the Board Charter.
- (d) The Board will appoint members of the Audit Committee. The Board may remove and replace members of the Audit Committee by resolution.
- (e) All members of the Audit Committee must be able to read and understand financial statements and have an understanding of the industry in which the Company operates.
- (f) The Chairman of the Audit Committee may not be the Chairman of the Board and must be independent (as set out in the Definition of Independence – see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (g) The Chairman of the Audit Committee shall have leadership experience and a strong finance, accounting or business background.
- (h) The external auditors, any non-member Directors, EXCO members, the Chief Financial Officer, the Company Secretary and senior executives, may be invited to Audit Committee meetings at the discretion of the Audit Committee.
- (i) The Audit Committee will be given the necessary power and resources to meet this Charter. This will include rights of access to management, rights to seek explanations and additional information and access to auditors, internal and external, without management present.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in monitoring and reviewing any matters of significance affecting financial reporting and compliance.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 Financial statements and reporting

- (a) The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing the integrity of the Company's financial reporting and overseeing the independence of the external auditors.
- (b) The Audit Committee will set aside sufficient time to discharge its functions to ensure the integrity of the financial statements of the Company and the independence of the external auditor.
- (c) The Audit Committee will review the audited annual and half-yearly financial statements and any reports which accompany published financial statements and recommend their approval or otherwise to the full Board.

3.2 Internal audit function

The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring the need for a formal internal audit and its scope, and assessing the performance and objectivity of any internal audit procedures that are established.

3.3 External audit and other control system requirements

- (a) The Audit Committee will each year review the appointment of the external auditor, their independence, their competence to perform the audit function of the Company, the audit fee, and any questions of resignation or dismissal.
- (b) The Audit Committee will review and each year report to the Board in writing on the following matters relevant to the Audit Committee's role and responsibility, including:
 - (i) assessment of whether external reporting is consistent with Audit Committee members' information and knowledge and is adequate for shareholder needs;
 - (ii) assessment of the management processes supporting external reporting;
 - (iii) procedures for the selection and appointment of the external auditor and for the rotation of external audit engagement partners;
 - (iv) recommendations for the appointment or, if necessary, the removal of the external auditor;
 - (v) assessment of the performance and independence of the external auditors (note, where the external auditor provides non-audit services, the report should state whether the Audit Committee is satisfied that provision of those services has not compromised the auditor's independence);
 - (vi) assessment of the performance and objectivity of the internal audit function;
 - (vii) the results of the committee's review of risk management and internal control systems; and
 - (viii) recommendations for the appointment of, or if necessary, the dismissal of the head of internal audit.

4. OVERALL RESPONSIBILITY OF THE BOARD.

Nothing in this Charter diminishes the ultimate responsibility of the Board to ensure the integrity of the Company's financial reporting.

SECTION 3 RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. COMPOSITION

- (a) The Risk Committee must comprise at least three members, a majority of whom are independent (as set out in the Definition of Independence – see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (b) The Board will appoint members of the Risk Committee. The Board may remove and replace members of the Risk Committee by resolution. In the ordinary course, the Chair of the Audit Committee will be a member of the Risk Committee.
- (c) All members of the Risk Committee must have an understanding of and experience working in the industry in which the Company operates.
- (d) The Chairman of the Risk Committee must be an independent Director (as set out in the Definition of Independence – see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (e) Any non-member Directors, EXCO members, the Company Secretary and senior executives, may be invited to Risk Committee meetings at the discretion of the Risk Committee.
- (f) The Risk Committee will be given the necessary power and resources to meet this Charter. This will include rights of access to management, rights to seek explanations and additional information and access to external consultants, and internal and external audit functions, without senior management present.
- (g) The Board may determine that it will remain responsible for overseeing the Company's risk management framework, without establishing a Risk Committee. In such circumstances, the Board when considering the Company's risk management framework will, to the extent practicable, seek to act in a manner consistent with this Risk Committee Charter.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Risk Committee is to assist the Board with the identification and management of business and operational risks faced by the Company to a standard that takes into account the reasonable expectations of the Company's shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers, creditors and the broader community in which the Company operates.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Risk Committee must:

- (a) ensure that management designs and implements a risk management and internal control system to manage the Company's material business risks;
- (b) review at least annually the Company's risk management and internal control system and report to the Board on its efficiency and effectiveness;
- (c) review the risk reports produced by management and review the efficiency and effectiveness of that risk management and internal control system;
- (d) develop and maintain a risk register which identifies the business risks to the Company and its operations (including economic, environmental and social sustainability risks) and assess the likelihood of their occurrence;

- (e) periodically review the scope and adequacy of the Company's insurance, having regard to the Company's business and its associated insurable risks;
- (f) oversee the Company's operational and environmental risk management and occupational health and safety processes;
- (g) oversee procedures for whistleblower protection;
- (h) ensure that management designs and implements an anti-bribery and corruption system to minimise the Company's risks with respect to bribery and corruption; and
- (i) review at least annually the Company's anti-bribery and corruption system and report to the Board on its efficiency and effectiveness.

SECTION 4 REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. COMPOSITION

- (a) The Remuneration Committee must comprise at least three Directors, the majority being independent (as set out in the Definition of Independence – see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (b) The Chairman of the Remuneration Committee must be independent (as set out in the Definition of Independence - see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (c) The Board will appoint members of the Remuneration Committee. The Board may remove and replace members of the Remuneration Committee by resolution.
- (d) Any non-member Directors, EXCO members, the Company Secretary and senior executives, may be invited to Remuneration Committee meetings at the discretion of the Remuneration Committee.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Remuneration Committee is to support and advise the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to shareholders by:

- (a) reviewing and approving the executive remuneration policy to enable the Company to attract and retain executives and Directors who will create value for shareholders;
- (b) ensuring that the executive remuneration policy demonstrates a clear relationship between executive performance and remuneration;
- (c) recommending to the Board the remuneration of EXCO members;
- (d) reviewing and commenting on superannuation arrangements;
- (e) reviewing and commenting on remuneration by gender;
- (f) fairly and responsibly rewarding executives having regard to the performance of the Company, the performance of the executive and the prevailing remuneration expectations in the market;
- (g) reviewing the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior management;
- (h) evaluating the performance of EXCO members and monitoring performance of the executive management team generally;
- (i) reviewing and providing advice to the Board on the remuneration of the executive management team, and as appropriate other senior executives; and
- (j) reviewing and approving any equity based plans and other incentive schemes.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To fulfil its responsibilities to the Board, the Remuneration Committee will review and provide recommendations to the Board on the following matters.

3.1 Remuneration consultants

If the Board is considering retaining a remuneration consultant to provide advice to the Board, the Remuneration Committee must:

- (a) approve the remuneration consultant before a remuneration consultancy agreement is entered into;
- (b) oversee the independence of the remuneration consultant;
- (c) set aside sufficient time to ensure the independence of the remuneration consultant;
- (d) each year review the appointment of the remuneration consultant, their independence, their competence to provide unbiased advice to the Company, their consultancy fees, and any questions of resignation or dismissal; and
- (e) review and each year report to the Board in writing on at least the following matters relevant to the Remuneration Committee's role and responsibility, including:
 - (i) assessment of the performance and independence of the remuneration consultant. The report should state whether the Remuneration Committee is satisfied that the remuneration consultant (and their subsequent remuneration recommendations) are free from "undue influence" from management (and other key management personnel);
 - (ii) assessment of the performance and objectivity of the remuneration assessment function; and
 - (iii) recommendations for the appointment of, or if necessary, the dismissal of the external remuneration consultant.

3.2 Executive remuneration policy

The Remuneration Committee must:

- (a) as required, review and approve the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior executives to enable the Company to attract and retain executives and Directors who can create value for shareholders;
- (b) review the on-going appropriateness and relevance of the executive remuneration policy and other executive benefit programs; and
- (c) ensure that remuneration policies fairly and responsibly reward executives having regard to the performance of the Company, the performance of the executive and prevailing remuneration expectations in the market.

3.3 EXCO and other senior management

The Remuneration Committee must:

- (a) consider and make recommendations to the Board on the proposed remuneration for each new EXCO member (including base pay, incentive payments, equity awards, retirement rights, termination payments, service contracts) having regard to the executive remuneration policy;
- (b) review and determine the proposed remuneration (including incentive awards, equity awards and service contracts) for each EXCO member. As part of this review the Remuneration Committee will undertake an annual performance evaluation of each EXCO member; and

- (c) review and approve the proposed remuneration (including incentive awards, equity awards and service contracts) for senior executives (other than EXCO). As part of this review the Remuneration Committee will generally monitor performance of the executive management team.

3.4 Non-executive Directors

The Remuneration Committee must:

- (a) consider and make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration for each non-executive Director (as distinct from the remuneration structures of executive Directors and senior management) having regard to the non-executive remuneration policy and the maximum aggregate remuneration for non-executive Directors as set by the shareholders; and
- (b) review the on-going appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy as it applies to non-executive Directors.

The Company's non-executive Director remuneration policy aims to reward non-executive Directors fairly and responsibly. Fees paid to non-executive Directors are recommended by the Remuneration Committee based on advice from external remuneration consultants and determined by the Board, subject to the aggregate limit approved by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting. Non-executive Directors do not receive any variable remuneration and do not participate in schemes designed for the remuneration of executives.

3.5 Executive incentive plan

The Remuneration Committee must review and approve the design of any executive incentive plans.

3.6 Equity based plans

The Remuneration Committee must:

- (a) review and approve any equity based plans that may be introduced (Plans) in the light of legislative, regulatory and market developments;
- (b) for each Plan, determine each year whether awards will be made under that Plan;
- (c) review and approve total proposed awards under each Plan;
- (d) in addition to considering awards to EXCO and direct reports to EXCO, review and approve proposed awards under each Plan on an individual basis for executives if required under the rules governing each Plan or as determined by the Remuneration Committee; and
- (e) review, approve and keep under review performance hurdles for each Plan.

3.7 Remuneration Report

The Remuneration Committee must review and recommend for approval by the Board the Company's annual Remuneration Report.

SECTION 5 NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. COMPOSITION

- (a) The Nomination Committee must comprise at least three Directors, the majority being independent (as set out in the Definition of Independence – see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (b) The Chairman of the Nomination Committee must be independent (as set out in the Definition of Independence - see paragraph 11 of the Board Charter).
- (c) The Board will appoint members of the Nomination Committee. The Board may remove and replace members of the Nomination Committee by resolution.
- (d) Any non-member Directors, EXCO members, the Company Secretary and senior executives, may be invited to Nomination Committee meetings at the discretion of the Nomination Committee.
- (e) The Board may determine that it will remain responsible for overseeing the Director nomination process, without establishing a Nomination Committee. In such circumstances, the Board when considering the Director nomination process will, to the extent practicable, seek to act in a manner consistent with this Nomination Committee Charter.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nomination Committee is to support and advise the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to shareholders by:

- (a) maintaining a Board that has an appropriate mix of skills and experience to be an effective decision-making body;
- (b) recommending to the Board the appointment and re-election of Directors;
- (c) developing a process for evaluation of the performance of the Board, its Board Committees and individual Directors;
- (d) ensuring that the Board is comprised of Directors who contribute to the successful management of the Company and discharge their duties having regard to the law and the highest standards of corporate governance; and
- (e) ensuring the Company's Diversity Policy is implemented in respect of the Board and the process for identifying and selecting new Directors.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To fulfil its responsibilities to the Board, the Nomination Committee will review and provide recommendations to the Board on the following matters.

3.1 Nomination

The Nomination Committee must:

- (a) identify and recommend to the Board candidates for the Board after considering the necessary and desirable competencies of new Board members to ensure the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity and after assessment of how the candidates can contribute to the strategic direction of the Company and having regard to the Company's Diversity Policy;

- (b) approve and review induction procedures for new appointees of the Board to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities;
- (c) assess and consider the time required to be committed by a non-executive Director to properly fulfil his or her duty to the Company and advise the Board;
- (d) consider and recommend to the Board candidates for election or re-election to the Board at each annual shareholders' meeting;
- (e) review directorships in other public companies held by or offered to Directors and senior executives of the Company;
- (f) review succession plans for the Board with a view to maintaining an appropriate balance of skills and experience on the Board;
- (g) arrange an annual performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors;
- (h) make recommendations to the Board on the appropriate size and composition of the Board; and
- (i) make recommendations to the Board on the terms and conditions of appointment to, and removal and retirement from, the Board.

3.2 Procedure for selection and appointment of new Directors

The Board's procedure when selecting and appointing new Directors varies depending upon the circumstances of the Company at the particular time. Generally, however, the procedure for the selection and appointment of a new Director will be based on the Nomination Committee doing the following:

- (a) assessing the needs of the Board to ensure that there is a range of skills, experience, expertise and diversity represented, including an understanding of:
 - (i) the industry in which the Company operates;
 - (ii) the markets in which the Company operates;
 - (iii) business development and risk management; and
 - (iv) accounting, finance and legal matters;
- (b) where a need is identified or arises, engaging recruitment advisers to identify individuals with the skills and experience required by the Board;
- (c) taking steps to ensure that a diverse range of candidates are considered having regard to the Company's Diversity Policy;
- (d) developing a short list of potential appointees taking into account, among other things, the particular skills and experience of each individual appointee and their ability to fit with the existing Board;
- (e) undertaking appropriate checks as to the candidate's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history; and
- (f) recommending to the Board the most appropriate person from the short list of potential appointees to be invited to become a Director of the Company.

3.3 Policy for the appointment of Directors

The Nomination Committee policy for the appointment of Directors, as part of the broader selection and appointment procedure, looks to ensure that the potential appointee best matches the needs of the Board.

Factors considered by the Nomination Committee when recommending a person for appointment as a Director include:

- (a) competencies and qualifications;
- (b) independence;
- (c) any adverse information revealed by checks the Nomination Committee has conducted on a candidate;
- (d) the time commitment required by a Director to effectively discharge his or her duties to the Company;
- (e) the number of existing directorships and other commitments that may demand the attention of the appointee;
- (f) the nature of existing positions, directorships or other relationships and the impact that each may have on the appointee's ability to exercise an independent judgment; and
- (g) the extent to which the appointee is likely to work constructively with the existing Directors and contribute to the overall effectiveness of the Board.

In accordance with the Company's constitution, all new appointees to the Board must resign at the next annual general meeting after the date of their appointment and offer themselves for election.

3.4 Notices of meeting

The Nomination Committee policy on notices of meeting involving the election or re-election of Directors is that sufficient information should be made available to enable shareholders to make an informed choice about who should be elected or re-elected a Director.

The notice is to set out a range of matters about the person recommended for election as a Director, including:

- (a) biographical details, including their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the Board;
- (b) details of any other material directorships currently held by the candidate;
- (c) in the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time:
 - (i) any material adverse information revealed by the checks the Company has performed about the candidate;
 - (ii) details of any interest, position, association or relationship that may influence his or her independence; and
 - (iii) if the Board considers that the candidate will, if elected, qualify as an independent director, a statement to that effect; and
- (d) in the case of a candidate standing for re-election as a Director:
 - (i) the term of office currently served by the Director;

- (ii) if the Board considers the Director to be an independent director, a statement to that effect; and
- (iii) a statement by the Board as to whether it supports the election or re-election of the candidate.
